It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that specific individuals within our workforce are assigned the responsibility of implementing and maintaining HIPAA Privacy Policies. Furthermore, it is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that these individuals will be provided sufficient resources and authority to fulfill their responsibilities. At a minimum it is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that there will be one individual or job description designated as the Privacy Official.

It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that protected health information may not be used or disclosed except when at least one of the following conditions is true:

1. The individual who is the subject of the information (i.e. the “subject individual”) has authorized the use or disclosure.
2. The use or disclosure is for an individual’s treatment, payment or health care operations.
3. The individual who is the subject of the information does not object to the disclosure and the disclosure is to friends or family members involved in the health care of the individual.
4. The disclosure is to the individual who is the subject of the information or to HHS for compliance-related purposes.
5. The use or disclosure is otherwise permitted or required by HIPAA.

It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that privacy protections extend to information concerning deceased individuals.

It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that a notice of privacy practices must be provided to all patients at the earliest practicable time and posted in our office, that any revised notice be available to patients upon request and that all uses and disclosures of protected health information be done in accord with this organization’s notice of privacy practices.

Privacy Policy Statement

Medical Associates of Stamford, PC
1100 Bedford Street
Stamford, CT 06905

It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that consideration must be given to all requests for restrictions on uses and disclosures of protected health information as stated in this organization's notice of privacy practices. It is furthermore the policy of this organization that if a particular restriction is agreed to, then this organization is bound by that restriction.

It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that (except for disclosures to a health care provider made for treatment purposes, disclosures to the patient, disclosures pursuant to an authorization, or disclosures to the Secretary of DHHS for HIPAA compliance purposes) all uses and disclosures of protected health information must be limited to the minimum amount of information needed to accomplish the purpose of the use or disclosure. It is also the policy of this organization that all requests for protected health information (except requests made for treatment purposes) must be limited to the minimum amount of information needed to accomplish the purpose of the request.

It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that access to protected health information must be granted to each employee or contractor based on the assigned job functions of the employee or contractor only as necessary to accomplish the assigned job function.

It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that, where required by state law or HIPAA, access to protected health information must be granted to the person who is the subject of such information within the timeframes required by state law or the HIPAA Privacy Rule. It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC to inform the person requesting access of the location of protected health information if we do not physically possess such PHI but have knowledge of its location.

It is the policy of Medical Associates of Stamford, PC that all requests for amendment of protected health information maintained by this organization will be considered in a timely fashion. If such requests demonstrate that the information is actually incorrect or incomplete, this organization will allow amending language to be added to the appropriate document and this addition will be done in a timely fashion. It is not the policy of this organization to change, remove or strike through any original document. It is also the policy of this organization that notice of such corrections will be given to any person or organization with which the incorrect information has been shared who have relied or may rely on such information to the detriment of the patient.
